

INSTITUTE FOR SOCIETY,
CULTURE, AND ENVIRONMENT
VIRGINIA TECH™

Online Survey Methodology Webinar January 27, 2021 – Speaker Biographies

James Hawdon, Ph.D., Professor of Sociology, Interim Department Chair, and Director of the Center for Peace Studies and Violence Prevention at Virginia Tech. Dr. Hawdon's recent federally research has focused on online domestically and internationally extremism, social polarization, and cybercrime. hawdonj@vt.edu

Dr. Aaron Ogletree received his Ph.D. in Human Development and Family Science from Virginia Tech in 2018. After working at the American Institutes for Research (AIR), Aaron joined the National Institute of Minority Health and Health Disparities (NIMHD) as a Scientific Program Manager in 2021. His work focuses on the causes and consequences of poor health in older adulthood. He currently serves as the Consulting Editor for Statistics and Methods for the journal Gerontology & Geriatrics Education. ogletreeam@mail.nih.gov

Dan Costanzo is a Senior Manager at NORC at the University of Chicago, an independent, non-partisan research institution. As part of the team that administers NORC's AmeriSpeak Panel, Dan works with researchers who need representative samples of US populations for their studies. Dan is a native Virginian who previously worked for current US Senator Tim Kaine during his stint as Lt. Governor. Costanzo-daniel@norc.org

Nathaniel Porter, Ph.D., is a sociologist and the Social Science Data Consultant and Data Education Coordinator at Virginia Tech Libraries. Nathaniel has extensive experience with survey development, administration and analysis and is available for research consultation to Virginia Tech faculty members and students. ndporter@vt.edu